

Damage is a model-specific function of one scalar: each model's noise curve (line, measured with Gaussian noise and no quantizer)
vs its quantizer cells (red=uncentered, green=centered, square=1-bit)

